With specific reference to Art.28(5) of the OFC Statutes the Extraordinary Congress of the Oceania Football Confederation (OFC) rules:

PRELIMINARY TITLE

Art. 1 Object

This code describes infringements of the rules in OFC regulations, determines the sanctions incurred, regulates the organisation and function of the bodies responsible for taking decisions and the procedures to be followed by these bodies.

Art. 2 Scope of application

This code applies to every match and competition organised by OFC. Beyond this scope, it also applies if a match official is harmed and, more generally, if the statutory objectives of OFC are breached, especially with regard to forgery, corruption and doping.

Art. 3 Scope of application: Natural and Legal persons

The following are subject to this code:

- a) member associations;
- b) members of these associations, in particular the clubs;
- c) officials;
- d) players;
- e) match officials;
- f) anyone with an authorisation from OFC, in particular with regard to a match, competition or other event organised by OFC;
- g) spectators.

Art. 4 Scope of Application: Time

1. This code applies to facts that have arisen after it has come into force. It also applies to previous facts if it is more favourable for the perpetrator of the facts and if the judicial bodies of OFC are deciding on these facts after the code has come into force.

Art. 5 Definitions

1. Post-match: the time between the final whistle from the referee and the team's departure from the confines of the stadium.
2. Pre-match: the time between the teams' arrival in the confines of the stadium and the whistle for kick-off from the referee.
3. International match: a match between two teams belonging to different Member Associations (two clubs, one club and one representative team or two representative teams).

4. Friendly match: a match organised by a football organisation, club or other person between teams chosen for the occasion and possibly belonging to different Member Associations of the OFC; the score has effect only on the match or competition in question and, in the case of national teams, on the FIFA rankings.
5. Official match: a match organised under the auspices of a football organisation for all of the teams or clubs and possibly belonging to different Member Associations of the OFC; the score has an effect on the rights of participation in other competitions unless the regulations in question stipulate otherwise.
6. Official: anyone, with the exception of players, performing an activity connected with football at a Member Association or club, regardless of his title, the type of activity (administrative, sporting or any other) and the duration of the activity; in particular, managers, coaches and medical staff are officials.
7. Match official: the referee, assistant referees, fourth official, match commissioner, referee inspector, the security officer, and any other persons appointed by OFC to assume responsibility in connection with a match.
8. OFC regulations: the Statutes, rules, regulations, instructions and circulars of OFC.
9. FIFA regulations: the Statutes, regulations, directives and circulars of FIFA as well as the Laws of the Game issued by the International Football Association Board.

Art. 6 Gender

The provisions of this code apply to the male and female gender, regardless of the choice of words and expressions.

Art.7 Member Associations' Disciplinary Regulations

Member Associations are required to adapt their provisions to this code so as to harmonise disciplinary regulations.

FIRST TITLE — MATERIAL LAW

CHAPTER I. GENERAL PART

SECTION 1 — CONDITIONS FOR SANCTIONS

Art.8 Culpability

1. Unless otherwise specified, infringements are punishable regardless of whether they have been committed deliberately or negligently.
2. Exceptionally, a match may have to be played without spectators or on neutral territory, or a certain stadium may be banned purely for safety reasons, without an infringement having been committed.

Art. 9 Acts amounting to attempt

1. Acts amounting to attempt are also punishable.
2. In the case of acts amounting to attempt, the Disciplinary Committee shall reduce the sanction envisaged for the actual infringement accordingly. It will determine the extent of mitigation as it sees fit; it shall not go below the general lower limit of the fine (cf. Art. 16, par.2).

Art. 10 Involvement

1. Anyone who knowingly takes part in committing an infringement, either as instigator or accomplice, is also punishable.
2. The judicial bodies shall take into account the degree of guilt of the party involved by reducing, increasing or modifying the sanction as it sees fit. It shall not go below the general lower limit of the fine (cf. Art. 16, par.2).

SECTION 2 — VARIOUS SANCTIONS

Art. 11 Sanctions common to natural and legal persons

Both natural and legal persons are punishable by the following sanctions:

- a) warning;
- b) reprimand;
- c) fine;
- d) return of awards.

Art. 12 Sanctions applicable to natural persons

The following sanctions are applicable only to natural persons:

- a) caution;
- b) expulsion;
- c) match suspension;
- d) ban from the dressing rooms and/or the substitutes' bench;
- e) ban from entering a stadium;
- f) ban on taking part in any football related activity.

Art. 13 Sanctions applicable to legal persons

The following sanctions are applicable only to legal persons:

- a) playing a match without spectators;
- b) playing a match on neutral territory;
- c) ban on playing in a particular stadium;
- d) annulment of the result of a match;
- e) exclusion;
- f) deduction of points;
- g) forfeiture.
- h) transfer ban;
- i) demotion to the next lower division;

Art. 14 Warning

A warning is a reminder of the substance of a disciplinary rule allied with the threat of a sanction in the event of a further infringement.

Art. 15 Reprimand

A reprimand is an official written pronouncement of disapproval sent to the perpetrator of an infringement.

Art. 16 Fine

1. The fine is issued in NZ Dollars (NZD). It shall be paid in the same currency.
2. The fine shall not be less than NZD$300, or in the case of a competition subject to an age limit not less than NZD$200, and not more than NZD$1,000,000.
3. The body that pronounces the sanction decides the terms and time limits for payment. If the fine is added to a match suspension, it shall be paid before the suspension has ended.
4. Member Associations are jointly liable for fines imposed on national team players and officials. The same applies to clubs in respect of their players and officials. The fact that a natural person has left a club or national association does not cancel out joint liability.

Art. 17 Return of awards

1. The person required to return an award shall return all of the benefits received, in particular sums of money and symbolic objects (medal, trophy, etc.).
2. The money received shall always be returned in full. The body pronouncing the sanction decides any interest that may be due as it sees fit.

Art. 18 Caution

1. A caution (yellow card) is a warning from the referee to a player during a match to sanction unsporting behaviour of a less serious nature (cf. Law 12 of the Laws of the Game).
2. Two cautions received during the same match incur an expulsion (indirect red card, cf. Art. 52 g) and, consequently, automatic suspension from the next match (cf. Art.19 par. 4). The two cautions that incurred the red card are rescinded.
3. If an abandoned match is to be replayed, any caution issued during the abandoned match shall be annulled. If the match is not to be replayed, the cautions received by the team responsible for causing the match to be abandoned are upheld; if both teams are responsible, all of the cautions are upheld.
4. If a player is guilty of serious unsporting behaviour as defined in Law 12 of the Laws of the Game and is sent off (direct red card), any other caution he has previously received in the same match is upheld.

Art. 19 Expulsion

1. An expulsion is the order given by the referee to someone to leave the field of play and its surroundings, including the substitutes' bench, during a match. The person who has been sent off may be allowed into the stands unless he is serving a stadium ban.
2. Expulsion takes the form of a red card for players. The red card is regarded as direct if it sanctions serious unsporting behaviour as defined by Law 12 of the Laws of the Game; it is regarded as indirect if it is the result of an accumulation of two yellow cards (cf. Art. 18, par. 2).
3. An official who has been sent off may give instructions to the person replacing him on the substitutes' bench. He shall, however, ensure that he does not disturb the spectators or disrupt the flow of play.
4. An expulsion automatically incurs suspension from the subsequent match, even if imposed in a match that is later abandoned and/or cancelled. The Disciplinary Committee may extend the duration of the suspension.

Art. 20 Match suspension

1. A suspension from a match is a ban on taking part in a future match or competition or to attend it in the area immediately surrounding the field of play.
2. The player who has been suspended shall not be included on the players' list for the match.
3. The suspension is imposed in terms of matches, days or months. Unless otherwise specified, it may not exceed twenty-four (24) matches or two (2) years.
4. If the suspension is to be served in terms of matches, only those matches actually played count towards execution of the suspension. If a match is abandoned, cancelled or finally forfeited, suspension is only considered to have been served if the team to which the suspended player belongs is not responsible for the facts that led to abandonment, cancellation or forfeiture of the match.
5. If a suspension is combined with a fine, it is prolonged until the fine has been paid in full.

Art. 21 Ban from dressing rooms and/or substitutes' benches

A ban from dressing rooms and/or substitutes' benches deprives someone of the right to enter teams' dressing rooms and/or the area immediately surrounding the field of play, and in particular to sit on the substitutes' bench.

Art. 22 Stadium ban

A stadium ban prohibits someone from entering the confines of one or several stadium.

- Art. 23 Ban on performing any football related activity
A person may be banned from performing any kind of football related activity (administrative, sports or any other).
- Art. 24 Transfer Ban
A transfer ban prevents a club from signing any player during the period in question.
- Art. 25 Playing a match without spectators
The obligation to play a match behind closed doors requires Member Associations and clubs to have a certain match played without spectators.
- Art. 26 Playing on neutral ground
The obligation to play a match on neutral ground requires Member Associations and clubs to have a certain match played in another country or in a different region of the same country.
- Art. 27 Ban on playing in a particular stadium
A ban on playing in a certain stadium deprives Member Associations and clubs of the right to have their teams play in a certain stadium.
- Art. 28 Annulment of the result of a match
The result of a match is annulled if the result reached on the field of play is disregarded.
- Art. 29 Exclusion
Exclusion is the deprivation of the right of Member Associations and clubs from taking part in a current and/or future competition.
- Art. 30 Demotion to the next lower division
A club may be demoted to the next lower division.
- Art. 31 Deduction of points
A national team or club may have points deducted from those already attained in any current OFC tournament.
- Art. 32 Forfeit
1. Teams sanctioned with a forfeit are considered to have lost the match by 0-3.
 2. If the goal difference is greater, the higher score is upheld.

SECTION 3 — COMMON RULES

Art. 33 Combined sanctions

1. Unless otherwise specified, the sanctions provided for in the general and special parts of this code may be combined.
2. In less serious cases, the body may only pronounce a reduced sanction or a caution or a reprimand.

Art. 34 Partial suspension of implementation of the sanction

1. The body that pronounces a match suspension (cf. Art. 20), a ban on access to dressing rooms and/or the substitutes' bench (cf. Art. 21) or a ban on playing in a certain stadium (cf. Art. 27) shall examine whether it is possible to suspend the implementation of the sanction partially.
2. Partial suspension is permissible only if the duration of the sanction does not exceed six (6) matches or six (6) months and if the circumstances generally allow it, in particular the previous record of the person sanctioned.
3. The body shall decide which part of the sanction may be suspended. In any case, half of the sanction is definite.
4. By suspending implementation of the sanction, the body subjects the person sanctioned to a probationary period of from six (6) matches to two (2) years.
5. If the person benefiting from a suspended sanction commits another infringement during the probationary period, the suspension is automatically revoked and the sanction applied; it is added to the sanction pronounced for the new infringement.

Art. 35 Time sanctions: calculation of time limit

Rest periods during or between seasons are included in the duration of time sanctions.

Art. 36 Limitation period of sanctions

1. The limitation period for sanctions is five years.
2. The limitation period begins on the day on which the decision comes into force.

Art. 37 Centralisation of sanctions

1. Records of cautions, expulsions and match suspensions are stored in the central system of OFC. The Disciplinary Committee secretariat confirms them in writing to the Member Association concerned or, in the case of final competitions, to the head of the delegation concerned.
2. This confirmation serves only as notification: sanctions (cautions, expulsions, automatic match suspensions) have an immediate effect on subsequent matches even if the letter of confirmation reaches the Member Association, club or head of delegation concerned later.

SECTION 4 — CARRYING OVER AND CANCELLING CAUTIONS AND MATCH SUSPENSIONS

Art. 38 Carrying over cautions

1. Cautions received during one competition are not carried over to another competition.
2. They are, however, carried over from one round to the next in the same competition. The Disciplinary Committee may exceptionally depart from this rule before the start of a particular competition. This provision is subject to Art. 39.

Art. 39 Cancellation of cautions

1. At the request of a member association, the Disciplinary Committee may cancel cautions that have not resulted in a match suspension so as to restore the balance among several teams that have not played the same number of matches during the first round of a competition, or in other exceptional circumstances.
2. In any case, the Disciplinary Committee may do this only once in any competition.
3. The Disciplinary Committee's decision is final.

Art. 40 Carrying over match suspensions

1. As a general rule, every suspension (of players and other persons) is carried over from one round to the next in the same competition.
2. Match suspensions resulting from several cautions issued to a player in different matches of the same competition are never carried over to another competition.
3. Match suspensions in relation to an expulsion pronounced on a player outside of a competition (separate match[es]) or not served during the competition for which they were intended (elimination or the last match in the competition) are carried over as follows:
 - a) OFC competitions for national teams (including age-group competition) shall be carried over to the national team's subsequent official match.
 - b) OFC club competitions shall be carried over to the club's subsequent official match in an OFC competition.
 - c) Friendly matches shall be carried over to the national team's subsequent friendly match.

SECTION 5 — DETERMINING THE SANCTION

Art. 41 General rule

1. The body pronouncing the sanction decides the scope and duration of it.
2. Sanctions may be limited to one or more certain categories of match and competition.
3. Unless otherwise specified, the duration of a sanction is always defined.
4. When deciding the sanction, the body will take account of all of the circumstances of the case, in particular the age of the person sanctioned, his record, personal situation, culpability (intentional or negligent), the reasons prompting him to commit the infringement and the degree of seriousness of the infringement.

Art.42 Repeated infringements

1. Unless otherwise specified, the body shall increase the sanction to be pronounced by half (+ 50%; if this is not possible, another sanction shall be imposed in the form of a fine) if an infringement has been repeated.
2. The sanction may be increased by half only once whenever this provision applies.
3. These provisions are subject to the special rules governing repeated doping infringements.

Art. 43 Infringements against match officials

1. If the victim of an infringement is a match official, the sanction to be pronounced will be increased by half (+50%).
2. This rule does not apply to infringements, which by definition can only be committed against match officials (cf. Art. 57 and 58).

Art. 44 Concurrent infringements

1. If someone incurs several fines as the result of one or several deeds, the body shall impose the fine envisaged for the most serious infringement and may increase it according to circumstances but not by more than half of the maximum envisaged for this infringement.
2. The same applies if a person incurs several time sanctions of a similar type (two (2) or more match suspensions, two (2) or more stadium bans, etc.) as the result of one or several deeds.
3. The body that applies par. 1 is not obliged to adhere to the general upper limit of the fine (cf. Art. 16 par. 2)

SECTION 6 — LIMITATION PERIOD ON DISCIPLINARY SANCTIONS

Art. 45 Duration

1. Infringements committed during a match may no longer be prosecuted after a lapse of two (2) years. As a general rule other infringements may not be prosecuted after a lapse of ten years.
2. Prosecution for corruption (cf. Art. 60) is not subject to a limitation period.

Art. 46 Commencement of the limitation period

The limitation period runs as follows:

- a) from the day on which the perpetrator committed the infringement;
- b) if the infringement is recurrent, from the day on which the most recent infringement was committed;
- c) if the infringement lasted a certain period, from the day on which it ended.

Art. 47 Interruption

The limitation period no longer applies if the Disciplinary Committee reaches a decision before it has expired.

CHAPTER II. SPECIAL PART

SECTION 1 — PHYSICAL ASSAULT

Art. 48 Physical injury

1. A player who deliberately assaults someone physically or damages his health will be suspended for at least four (4) matches. An official who commits such an infringement will be suspended for at least eight (8) matches.
2. The suspension shall be imposed at every level (local, national and international).
3. In any case, the body shall also impose a minimum fine of NZD$500. In the case of tournaments with an age limit, the fine can be reduced appropriately.

Art. 49 Violence

1. A player who deliberately assaults someone, but without harming him physically or damaging his health, will be suspended for at least two (2) matches. An official who commits such an infringement will be suspended for at least four (4) matches.
2. If a person assaults someone by spitting at him, he will be suspended for at least six (6) matches.
3. In any case, the body shall also impose a minimum fine of NZD$250. In the case of tournaments with an age limit, the fine can be reduced appropriately.

Art. 50 Brawl

1. Involvement in a brawl is sanctioned with a suspension for at least six (6) matches.
2. The scope of the suspension extends to all official international matches.
3. Anyone who has tried to prevent a fight, shield others or separate those involved in a brawl is not subject to punishment.

Art. 51 Unidentified aggressors

1. If, in the case of a group of people involved in violence, it is not possible to identify the instigator(s), the body will sanction the captain and the club or Member Association to which the aggressors belong. The person sanctioned may be reprieved by naming the guilty person(s) to the disciplinary body.
2. If, in the case of group violence, it is impossible to establish each participant's exact share of guilt, the Disciplinary Committee shall consider every participant identified as a perpetrator of the infringements committed.

SECTION 2 — INFRINGEMENTS OF THE LAWS OF THE GAME

Art. 52 Minor infringements

A player is cautioned if he commits one of the following infringements (cf. Law 12 of the Laws of the Game and Art. 18 above):

- a) unsporting behaviour such as foul play, dangerous play or holding on to an opponent's shirt or any part of his body;
- b) showing disapproval of match officials by word or action (criticizing decisions, protesting);
- c) violation of the Laws of the Game;
- d) delaying the restart of play;
- e) failing to comply with the required distance during corner kicks or free kicks;
- f) entering or re-entering the field of play without prior permission from the referee;
- g) leaving the field of play without prior permission from the referee;
- h) play acting (diving, feigning injury, etc.).

Art. 53 Serious infringements

A player is sent off if he commits one of the following infringements (cf. Law 12 of the Laws of the Game and Art. 19 above):

- a) serious foul play such as excessive or brute force;
